Comments:

Ideal weather conditions greeted competitors for Saltergate Gallows, the latest event in the Dave Parry Lets Run Winter Fell Race Series, bright skies, temperatures just slightly the chill side of mild and barely any breeze. Kim Cavill race organiser who led her Pickering Running Club team to great effect to hold a terrific event had reworked and extended the Saltergate course for 2021, the changes were liked by competitors who were very positive in their post race discussions. As an added bonus the longer version of the event now a BL category fell race counts as a qualifier for the Three Peaks scheduled for Spring 2022. The 120 runners faultlessly observed a 2 minute silence prior to the race start on this remembrance Sunday.

As the runners led off just after the scheduled 10.30hrs they were slightly too keen and hadn't checked their maps, a helpful marshall recalled a number who has gone off course before they even reached checkpoint one. Another runner realising he was short of the mandatory kit (No organiser discretion on kit in an AL, AM or BL) gave the race field a 5 minute start by the time he had begged and borrowed the requisite kit, I am told he finished in the top 20. In the race itself Lee Kemp of Esk Valley Fell Club led home to follow up his Lockton Limping victory three weeks prior. In second place and first veteran Gareth Green York Knavesmire Harriers won a hard fought battle with third place Steven Donaldson Esk Valley Fell Club.

In the team competition it was again Esk Valley Fell Club, their podium finishers supported by Thomas Naisby in 5th and Richard Veitch in 20th. Catherine Williamson Loftus and Whitby eased to victory with an impressive 9th overall, ahead of Rose Mather York Knavesmire Harriers and Kelly Gaughan of Pickering Running Club third. Jessica Slater in fourth and Louise Stringer in sixth claimed team victory of Knavesmire. Shelli Gordon of NYMAC in fifth was first veteran female. Thanks to the Pickering Running Club volunteers, also the Village Hall Committee who put on a tremendous spread of cakes, hot drinks and soup pre and post race. Surplus proceeds from race are being donated to the Village Hall and Scarborough Mountain Rescue Team. Next event Eskdale Eureka on 5 December, please bring your numbers and full kit.
