Comments:

With six weeks having elapsed since Comondale Clart on 9th January, 88 fell runners returned with their batteries charged for the Maybeck Three Crosses Fell Race (i must ask someone in the know why its not fours crosses as there is mention of York, Ann, Lilla and John Crosses on the OS map). Thanks must go to David Parke organiser and support from his club Scarborough AC. The Maybeck course has always been prone to being damp underfoot and some might say boggy, today was no different with most returning runners having a tale to tell about the ground conditions, knee and thigh deep something?. The rain held off for registration and the race, with a drizzle appearing for the presentations, in years gone by we have had to fight off the midgies in its summer series setting.

It was regular visitor Harry Holmes Matlock AC who led from the whistle start, his progress slowed only to allow Nic Barber Helm Hill Harriers, soon to be Lake District bound, to catch him to ask for some navigational advice. Harry with advice taken then eased to a near two minute lead over Nic by the finish. Steve Donaldson Esk Valley continued his run of form to take third place, Stephen Tilford Wakefield in fourth was the first vet over the line. In the womens race it was Rhona Marshall (V40) who lead home by a few metres from Kay Neesam (V50) New Marske Harriers with Kelly Gaughan Pickering Running Club first senior runner home and Rebecca Dent (U23) Scarborough AC in fourth. The teams competition was very close, with Pickering women claiming victory over Scarborough A and in the mens event it was a three way tussle with Scarborough AC ending Esk Valley's (third place) run of victories with Pickering RC second. Next event is the Carlin Howe based 'At the Double' on Saturday 12th March 2022.
