Comments:

The 33rd running of the Fox and Hounds Chase marked the start of the Dave Parry Lets Run Summer Fell Race Series 2022. In a change to the previous 32 events, registration start and finish were hosted by the Yorkshire Cycle Hub in Fryupdale.

This did mean a change to the course, the main loop was retained with a new start and finish sections, and a late addition to the course was the inclusion of a short sharp climb as a finish straight. The net change was a course distance of a round 9 miles (14.4km) as before though an additional 400' (100m) of ascent. Weather conditions were overcast, mild with slight breeze just about ideal.

Lee Kemp of Esk Valley Fell Club, in his first veteran 40 category race eased to an early lead on the circuit of the Cycle Hub field and onto the first major climb upto New Way and Jack Sledge Road, in pursuit of Lee were Richie Hughes Northumberland Fell Runners, the race field bolstered by a North East contingent with the Chase the third counter in the North East Fell Championships, Sam Leadley Loftus and Whitby followed in third with Dave Smith Pickering RC in fourth up the first hill. In the womens race, Cath Williamson Loftus and Whitby also in her veteran category debut led out with Kay Neesam New Marske in second and Karen Robertson NFR making up the top three. The order of the leading runners was unchanged as the race hit the final short sharp surprise 30 metre elevation gain and as runners crossed the line. In the womens race Nikki Carr Walls Scarborough AC was first under 40 in fourth with team mate Rebecca Dent first under 23.

It was a day for the veterans with 14 of the top 20 places. In the teams it was 3 counters in each gender this time around. Dave Smith of Pickering RC led the mens team to victory supported by Simon Jones and Phil Smith. Nikki Carr Walls with Rebecca Dent and Julie Clayton led Scarborough AC to the womens team victory.

A big thank you to Malcolm Peggs Race Organiser and his Loftus and Whitby team of volunteers and to Yorkshire Cycle Hub for hosting the registration, start and finish to the event.

Next Series race is Glaisdale Rigg on Sunday 19 June 2022, entry via SIENTRIES only. Then follows the Commondale Beacon on Wednesday 6 July 2022, the Winter Series 2021/22 awards will also be presented.
