Comments:

Midweek fell racing returned to the North Yorkshire Moors for the first time since the Roseberry Topping Fell Race on 27 August 2019 won by Lee Athersmith RAF and Caroline Lambert then of Ribble Valley.

Commondale Beacon third counter in the Dave Parry Lets Run Summer Fell Race Series 2022 organised on the night by David Bannister York Acorn who also organised the Commondale Clart on a wet underfoot sunny frosty day in January. Conditions for the Beacon were a complete contrast with road or a minimal treaded trail trainer the order of the day.

Registration was slow to start, though come six o'clock there was steady flow of runners that totalled 78 by the time the starter shouted go.

The main climb of the race was completed within the first couple of kilometres in the climb to White Cross, the race quickly developed into a Scarborough AC two way tussle with Daniel Bateson winning out in a course record of 50 minutes 58 seconds beating the previous record by over a minute. Club mate Paul Lawton came in second with Stephen Tilford Wakefield Harriers third and Andrew Price Thirsk and Sowerby fourth.

Cath Williamson Loftus and Whitby was first women in seventh overall followed in by Kay Neesam New Marske harriers AC and Rhona Marshall Scarborough AC third.

In the team competitor North Yorkshire Moors AC claimed the mens competition and Scarborough AC in the womens.

Presentations were made to winners in the Winter Fell Race Series 2021/22, Sarah Walch Penistone was the only teapot winner on the night and well done to the other prize winners.

Next race is the Viking Chase on Sunday 17 July from Lordstones, quickly followed by Cock Howe and Beyond on Wednesday 20 July from the Village Hall at Chop Gate.

Next Race : Viking Chase 4 Peaks
