Comments:

The Whorlton Run returned after a three year hiatus, the last time it was held was 2019. The weather was kind again, bright, some sunshine, still though that slightly chill breeze from the north north east directly imported from Scandinavia.

The Lets Run organised event with support from Swainby and the wider fell running communities was the third race in the Dave Parry Lets Run Summer Fell Race Series 2023. Surplus proceeds from race fees will be donated to the Swainby Playing Field Association who manage the race finish and parking area.

Race start was at 19:15hrs, 89 runners signed up, it was a fast and furious start on the road, as the gradient increased so the field stretched out and the pace slowed. At checkpoint one the field turned onto the steep climb of the moor at this point the race lead was between Caroline Lambert of Middlesbrough Mandale, Tom Levi of Thirsk and Sowerby Harriers and Sam Leadley of Lotus and Whitby AC.

Caroline stretched out her lead and had it not been for a navigation error she was on-course for an overall win as it was she finished seventh in the women's field.

For the runners who remained on-course there was a terrific tussle at the sharp end with the first seven finishers within just over a minute.

Run of the evening go to Betty Bergstrand Pudsey and Bramley who claimed victory (fifth overall) in a record time of 46.57 smashing Nik Tarrega's record of just over 50 minutes. The Bergstrand's now hold both the female and male records at Whorlton with older brother Ben holding the overall.

Catherine Williamson (v40) Loftus and Whitby was second women home just 30 seconds behind Betty, she finished seventh overall and first veteran. For the men Tim Grimwood (v40) Swaledale Runners in third was first veteran.

In the team competition, a very close mens result tipped in favour of Loftus and Whitby AC from Thirsk and Sowerby Harriers, in the women's team it was North Yorkshire Moors AC from Thirsk and Sowerby Harriers.

Thanks to all the helpers, next event is Tom's Bransdale Race on wednesday 14th June 2023. This is a cracking race in the heart of the North Yorkshire Moors, the registration venue has now changed to the old school, new map up this weekend.
