Comments:

It was a terrific evening for Tom's Bransdale Fell Race fourth counter of fifteen in the Dave Parry Lets Run Summer Fell race Series 2023 (Fry-up Frazzler will now round off the Summer Series). The race was lit up by a fantastic performance from Caroline Lambert Middlesbrough AC (Mandale), who completed what she had threatened to do at the previous weeks Whorlton Run, where a navigation error took her off course, this time she claimed an overall win.

David and Trudy Sanderson took over the reins of Toms Bransdale Fell Race, a memorial race held in memory of Tom Watson a keen local runner and former National Trust surveyor.

Bransdale is the most remote of the major valleys on the North York Moors. David and Trudy stayed faithful to the original course, with only the registration/start/finish relocated to the former Bransdale School and now community facility which happily is located on the course.

The weather was warm boarding on hot, the sun shone in the near perfectly blue skies, with only a hint of cloud with Altocumulus my estimate, beautifully captured by Robbie Preston see our facebook page.

In the race itself, there were battles throughout the field, the course required runners to have their wits about them with most having a navigational mishap tale to tell.

It was though Caroline who won out, a three battle between her and the Leadley Brothers Sam and Joe both Loftus and Whitby AC was won out by Caroline as the course just nudged upwards in the final 100 metres allowing a three second victory. Andrew Kaufman (V40) Individual was first veteran home, with Craig Gath (V45) Easingwold RC, Dave ParkerSt Therasas (v55) and Dave Smith (v50) Pickering Running Club all featuring in the top 10. Cath Williamson (v40) Loftus and Whitby AC continued her good form with eighth overall. Beck Penty (Sen) York Knavemire Harriers place third women home with Rhona Haslam (v40) Scarborough AC fourth. Freddy Wharton and Bethany Haggath both Thirsk and Sowerby Harriers claimed the under 23 prizes.

In the teams it was as you were at Whorlton Run with Loftus and Whitby men and Thirsk and Sowerby Harriers women.

The other standout performance of the night was David and Trudy on the barbecue, a great spread that created a lovely atmosphere for runners to support the whole field home. Zoe's Place received £100 from race fees plus the contents of the voluntary honesty box for the barbecue. A further donation of remaining surplus funds to be made to a good cause of the communities choosing.

Thank you to all the nights helpers and the race organisers. Fell racing returns in two weeks time with Gormire Gamble on wednesday 28th June 2023.
