Comments:

Over a new course the reverse of our festive favourite Comondale Clart, the Three C's Fell Race Clockwise Comondale Clart, 59 entrants made it to the start line, well it was 58 as Jonathan Proctor Individual arrived a little late giving the rest of the field an 11 minute headstart, though he did catch-up and claimed a second v40 prize for his efforts. The Cleveland Inn hosted registration, thank you and Cleveland Mountain Rescue Team representatives Sid Bollands and Andy Pearson were on hand just prior to race start to receive a donation cheque of £600, proceeds from the Viking Chase Four Peaks Fell Race held a couple of weeks ago.

In the tale of the tape it was the senior category who occupied the podium spots, Oliver Shaw Loftus and Whitby taking the win, followed in by team-mate Joe Leadley with Robbie Preston Scarborough AC finishing third. First veteran home was Matthew Jones (v45) also Scarborough AC, Freddy Wharton (U23) Thirsk and Sowerby Harriers had his first top five finish and rounding the top five was Rob Williamson (v55) Loftus and Whitby and making up the winning team (the modest entry number meant reverting to teams of three for the on the day prizes). In the team competition with four counters it was Scarborough AC, followed by Thirsk and Sowerby with Esk Valley Fell Club third. Cath Williamson (v40) Loftus and Whitby, still sporting her wrist cast place first women with Esther Harrison Thirsk and Sowerby Harriers first senior in second place and Kirsty Struthers North Yorks Moors AC making up the podium. Along with Esther, Rosamund Kruger (senior) fourth overall and Helen Ashworth (V55) made up the winning women's team, Thirsk and Sowerby Harriers AC.

Other age group wins included, Laura Havis (U23) Middlesbrough AC (Mandale), v40 wins for Michal Czekajlo and Sarah Walsh (not including Cath who won overall) Penistone Footpath Runners, v45 Lucy Sillars Thirsk and Sowerby, v50 Stephen Pugh Esk Valley Fell Club, v60 Barry Atkinson York Knavesmire Harriers and Alison Lloyd North Yorks Moors AC, v65 Neil Ridsdale Esk Valley Fell Club and v75 Neil Scruton Scarborough AC.
