Comments:

I could describe the weather as changeable, though only in so much as it was degrees of rain, drizzle, light, steady, heavy and torrential, i think i did spy the odd glimmer of the bright stuff, though it may have been a head torch. After a near year long absence of rain save the odd shower, the ducks were truly out for the Osmotherley Show Fell Race, the latest counter in the Dave Parry Lets Runs Summer Fell Race Series 2023. The day did not bode well when vehicles had to be towed onto the showground, the show organisers did persevere and whilst not the best attended Osmotherley Show, it was enjoyed by those who attended and the 71 runners who completed the fell race. A big well done and thank you to Bob Lillie who battled though flooding on the east coast to hold the event together with a start, finish and prize giving and to the other race helpers.

In the tale of the tape it was Tom Levi who led home the race field and the Thirsk and Sowerby Harriers to team victory placing four runners in the top eight, Freddy Wharton (MU23) 5th, Andrew Price (M40) 6th and Paul Peacock (M55) 8th. It was Andrew Collier Individual in second, and Durham Fell Runners Tom Carter in third.

The women's race was won by Claire Jones of York Knavesmire Harriers with Amy Pickworth (F40) Durham Fell Runners second and Emma Clapton Individual making up the podium. In the team competition, York Knavesmire Harriers with Claire supported by Ursula Moore in 6th and Orna O'Toole (F40) in 7th, Thirsk and Sowerby women were just beaten placing their leading runners 5th, 8th and 9th.

Next event is only a few breaths away and will have happened by the time you read this report, its Ravenscar Rumble Revisited on Wednesday 9th August 2023.

The twelfth counter in the fell series is Bilsdale Show on Saturday 26th August, quickly followed by Roseberry Topping on Wednesday 30th August.
