Comments:

Weather conditions were better for the Ravenscar Rumble Revisited Fell race, following the rainy deluge that accompanied the Osmotherley Show Fell Race. There was pre-race drama when a competitors family dog misjudged the cliff edge and fell over the edge, the rescue services were called, dog was retrieved unharmed and Emma Clapton Individual went on to finish third.

There was also anxiety for runners with traffic diverted around a road accident at Lockton.

Ninety four competitors made it to start line in this Scarborough AC (Robert Lillie and David Parke at the helm) organised event, the eleventh counter in the Summer 2023 edition of the Dave Parry Lets Run Fell Series.

The race for the overall victory and podium places developed into three-way tussle with Joe Leadley Loftus and Whitby claiming the win in 41 minutes 29 seconds, just 14 seconds shy of Daniel Bateson's 2022 course record. East Hull Harriers visitor Lewis Suddaby took second place just one second behind Joe, Oliver Shaw Loftus and Whitby a further 19 seconds back was third.

The next twelve runners were separated by two minutes with Tim Grimwood (v40) Swaledale Runners in fifth was first veteran home. Freddy Wharton Thirsk and Sowerby Harriers again claimed the under 23 award, though only just from Alexander Gaze Loftus and Whitby.

Catherine Williamson (v40) Loftus and Whitby added to her tally of race wins in the summer series and in a record time of 44 minutes 46 seconds beating her record from 2022 by 30 seconds. Rhona Marshall (v40) Scarborough AC was runner-up with Emma Clapton Individual third. Louise Venables (v40) Pocklington RR placed fourth with Hester Butterworth (v50) Scarborough AC in fifth.

Team prizes for the men were awarded to Loftus and Whitby AC based on three finishers, they also claimed the team win based on four places from Scarborough AC. It turned out to be a double team victory for Loftus and Whitby AC as team-mates of Cath made the short trip down the coast to support and claim the victory, with again Scarborough AC runners-up.

The twelfth counter in the fell series is Bilsdale Show on Saturday 26th August the organiser is short of helpers so please support if you can, this is quickly followed by Roseberry Topping on Wednesday 30th August.

Individual and team tables will be available shortly too.
