Comments:

Fell racing after a nigh five year hiatus returned to Roseberry Topping just in time for the 70th Anniversary race, not 70 editions though. The weather was very kind after a mixed summer, sunshine greeted the 63 competitors who ranged from the M70 to U13 categories.

There was a slight pause in start proceedings as Robert Lillie Scarborough AC presented Gareth Wilson race organiser and National Trust officer with a £400 cheque as proceeds from the recent Ravenscar Rumble Revisited Fell Race which will contribute to local conservation work. This was in addition to a recent donation of £500 to the National Trust from entry fees from the New Years Day Captain Cooks Fell Race.

In the tale of the tape it was Oliver Shaw Loftus and Whitby AC who claimed overall victory with team mate Sam Leadley runner-up and Tom Carter of Durham Fell Runners making up the podium. Loftus and Whitby continued their recent great teamwork winning that competition with Joe Leadley fifth and Alexander Gaze tenth and second under 23. Andy Blackett (v40) of Durham Fell Runners was first veteran category runner home in fourth.

Catherine Williamson V40 Loftus and Whitby AC placed first women in ninth overall. First junior runner was Poppy Phillipson U13G Birtley AC. Shelli Gordon V45 NYMAC placed third female with Emma Clapton Individual in fourth the first senior category runner.

Alfie Carr U15B Scarborough AC was the first junior boy home.

The women's team award went to Thirsk and Sowerby AC with Trudy Morrrice V50, Rosamond Kruger Sen and Laura Heslehurst Sen.

Castleton Show Race on Saturday 9th September will have completed by the time you read this report, final counter in the Dave Parry Lets Run Summer Fell Race Series 2023 is Fry-up Frazzler on Sunday 17 September, at the Yorkshire Cycle Hub.

Date fixing for 2024 is now in our minds with 11.00am Saturday 30 September at the Yorkshire Cycle Hub proposed as the meet-up to discuss. Invites will be sent to this years race organisers and there is an invite to anyone wanting to help out with race and series organisation.
