Comments:

The forecast foggy day didn't emerge and we were treated to a cold, bright autumn morning for perfect running conditions and a chance to see the moors in all of their golden glory. It was a great turnout again with 132 runners toeing the line for the second race in the series, one up on last years 131 runners.

After observing a minutes silence, the runners started fast on the runnable first couple of miles, spreading out nicely. The muddy and steep sections slowed them down a little but it was all on for the podium places in the men's race. Current course record holder Lee Kemp was held off by a speedy Rory Bevin who finished only 30 seconds off Lee's record to place first and the top five men were all within two minutes of each other for an exciting finish.

In the women's race, Caroline Lambert was a clear winner, with over four minutes lead while second place Victoria Sewell had a further six minute gap from Kay Neesam in third.

Esk Valley made a strong showing to take the men's team prize, with more bodies than a super Loftus and Whitby. Thirsk took the women's team prize.

Thank you to our helpers on the day: Kim Cavill - Organiser, Robert Lillie, Bridget Houlston, Debbie Rycroft, Carol Wilson, Sue Slack, David Stephenson, Shirley Tyrrell, Simon Tyrrell, Sally Brown, Graham Robinson, Alice Hayter, Andy Harvey and Dave Parke. This race is very well supported by the people of Levisham who provide us with parking fields and an ever impressive spread of refreshments so thanks needs to go to them too.

Next event is Eskdale Eureka on Sunday 3rd December 2023, no advance entry for this one its entry on the day and of course bring your race numbers if you competed at Lockton Limping or Saltergate Gallows.

Regards

Kim Cavill - Pickering Running Club
