Comments:

This was the rescheduled Eskdale Eureka from December 2023, when snow meant access difficulties. This new date also bumped the Maybeck Three Crosses event from the calendar which was looking problematic due to land access issues and programmed forestry work.

It was a grand day for the sixth counter in the Dave Parry Lets Run Winter Fell Race Series 2023/24, the early morning low clag giving way to a seasonally mild dry race day with some blue skies and sunshine.

Cleveland Mountain Rescue Team provided the on course support, with proceeds from the race being donated to this terrific organisation. We were also able to have a pre-race presentation of a £1000 cheque to the rescue team as some of the proceeds from the New Years Day Fell Race, Captain Cooks.

In the race itself, 123 runners signed on the line, a decent field in an increasingly busy race calendar. The now traditional uphill start meant that a significant proportion of the field were reduced to walking within yards of the start, no bad thing as a tough 9 miles lay ahead.

The three leading men had a race long battle, with Toby Ancliff (MU23) Sheffield Orienteering striking for home at the climb out of Hob Hole ford. Unfortunately Toby's route choice on the final descent in sight of the finish line let him down and meant that Sam Leadley (MSen) Loftus and Whitby AC claimed victory on the final run-in. Oliver Shaw (MSen) Loftus and Whitby AC made up the podium.

Caroline Lambert (WSen) Keswick AC now resident on the dark side of the Pennines, made a return to the light and claimed a women's race victory and fourth overall with Catherine Williamson (W40) Loftus and Whitby AC runner-up. In the team competition, Catherine was joined en-masse by her female team mates, meaning a straightforward win with support from Dawn Harrison (W50) and Michaela Welham (W45).

The men's team became a battle of the fourth placed counters, as it was Scarborough AC won out with Ian Spence (MSen), Robert Preston (MSen), Matthew Jones (M45) and Matt Machouki (M50).

Toby Ancliff also placed first MU23 and Alice Gamble Dark Peak Fell Runners first WU23 and third female.

Tim Grimwood (M40) Swaledale Runners was first veteran in fifth place, and Penny Browell (W50) Elvet Striders first veteran outside the top three in fourth.

Further down the field terrific running from our two M75 men, Neil Scruton Scarborough AC in 82th and Mike Hetherington Pickering RC in 118th. Not to out done our two W65 women finished 76th Sue Haslam Scarborough AC and 110th Martha McBarron Swaledale Runners.

Opportunity was also taken to almost complete the Summer Series awards, only two now remain Jane Hamp Scarborough AC and Ronni Kirkham Esk Valley Fell Club.

Along with the race entry fees most of which will be donated to the Rescue Team, there were many generous individual donations at registration to the Team, so a big Thank You.

Castleton Cricket Club provided refreshments with proceeds of the sale helping to maintain the club's facilities.

Along with the help of the Rescue Team's personnel who all volunteer their time, and are always looking for new recruits, there was help from Adrian Bushby, Robert Lillie, Malcolm Peggs, Graham Robinson and Clive Thornton.

Next event is race seven At The Double on Saturday 9th March 2024.
