Comments:

The weather for the first evening event and second counter of the Dave Parry Lets Run Summer Fell race Series 2024 was mixed, the evening was warm and bright to start, then the race and finish were punctuated with heavy showers, though the presentations passed off largely unhindered.

It's thanks to Adrian Martin (Silverback Trails) and his hardy bunch of volunteers for organising and supporting this years Glaisdale Rigg Fell Race and the Arncliffe Arms for hosting registration.

There was some pre-race registration discussion around course conditions, an aggressive fell shoe sole were the preferred choice though waders were also required in some of the boggy sections between checkpoints 3 and 4.

Fell racing is an honest sport this was highlighted at post-race presentation when the announced winner Lee Kemp Esk Valley Fell Club confirmed he and fellow competitor Ewan Sewell York Knavesmire Harrier did not quite reach checkpoint one. Thank you Lee.

A bit of paper shuffling later (or rather laptop checking, we are moving slowly into the modern age) and Ryan Gaughan (MSEN) Pickering Running Club was confirmed as the race winner, with Joseph Martlew (MSEN) Thirsk and Sowerby Harriers second by a handful of seconds and third overall and first female Catherine Williamson (F40) Loftus and Whitby AC within a minute of the winner.

Dave Smith (M50) Pickering Running Club placed fourth overall and third male, still within a minute of the winner, so a close finish. Freddy Wharton (MU23) Thirsk and Sowerby Harriers freed from winter rugby duties raced to fifth overall and fourth male.

Georgia Campbell (FSEN) Individual continued her good form in second and Kelly Gaughan (FSEN) third, Kirsty Struthers (FSEN) North York Moors AC placed fourth and Michaela Welham (F45) Loftus and Whitby AC fifth.

In the team competition, the mens team prize was awarded to Pickering Running Club and the womens prize to Loftus and Whitby AC.

Well done to all who competed and the 70 runners who completed.

The next event and third counter in the Dave Parry Lets Run Summer Fell race Series 2024 is Whorlton Run on Wednesday 5th June, registration at the Swainby village hall.
