Comments:

Competitors arriving for the latest round of the Dave Parry Lets Run Summer Fell Race Series were greeted with mixed weather of showers and sunshine, in the bright intervals it was a warm and muggy with a slight chill in rainy periods.

Gareth Wilson of the National Trust was race organiser supported by National Trust volunteers and a few series runners who gained their bonus points and felt the warm glow of volunteering, thank you all.

The Roseberry Topping fell race at 2.6km long with a couple of hundred metres of ascent does mean we allow juniors to race, so it was good to see eight under 18's and seven under 23's.

A total of 68 runners signed up for the race, just before the off there was a presentation of the Ravenscar proceeds to Gareth to contribute to the work of the National Trust.

It was Lee Kemp (MV40) Esk Valley Fell Club who took an early lead on opening track to the woodland at the base of Roseberry, as the climb steepened on the open slopes Lee kept his lead with club mate Scott Jowett (MSen) in second. In the womens race it was Poppie Phillipson (FU14) Birtley AC who gained an early lead which she held as the Topping approached with Rachel Baker (FU23) Individual in second.

Uphill racing and downhill racing are distinctly different disciplines, Lee retained his lead as he started his descent, he briefly lost that lead to Oliver Shaw (MSen) Loftus and Whitby AC when Oliver opted for the chute descent rather than the tourist path. Though by the finish it was the Esk Valley Runner who claimed the win with Olliver Shaw runner up, Joe Leadley (MSen) Loftus and Whitby AC third.

Poppie Phillipson retained her lead to the finish to the win in 15.01, with Rachel Baker in second and Kirsty Struthers (FSen) North York Moors AC in third.

In the teams it was Esk Valley Fell Club men and North Yorkshire Moors AC women.
In the juniors it was Poppie first overall, with James Clyne Ripon Runners second, followed by William Rowan Esk Valley Fell Club second and Liliene Czekajlo Individual# second junior girl.

Next Race in the series is Bilsdale Show on Saturday 31st August, then the penultimate race in the series Castleton Show (the road race for fell runners and the fell race for road runners) on Saturday 14th September. The Summer Series then rounds off with event 11 Fry-up Frazzler on 22 September.

Thanks also to Andrew Paylor for some terrific photography, a link is available on the Esk Valley Fell Club Facebook page.
