Comments:

A total of 119 runners braved the worst of Storm Ashley in the 2024 Gormire Gamble (9km with 250m of ascent) at the North York Moors Sutton Bank Visitor Centre. Despite the foul weather and slippery descent down to the lake, some impressive times were set, with the race winner Oliver Shaw (MSEN) of Loftus & Whitby coming in very close to the course record with 41:36. 2nd male was Stephen MacDougall (MSEN) of Middlesbrough & Cleveland in 41:53 and 3rd Rory Bevin (MSEN) in 42:40.

In the female race, the winner was Victoria Sewell (FSEN) of York Knavesmire in 49:49 with 2nd place to Thirsk & Sowerby's Esther Harrison (FSEN) putting her local knowledge to good use with an intriguing route choice to finish in 51:48. Kelly Richmond (FSEN) of Pickering took 3rd in 54:07. The two fastest U23 runners were George Parr (Penistone) in 42:42 (4th male) and Laura Havis (Middlesbrough) in 58:53 (10th female).

The host club Thirsk and Sowerby were supported by a hardy bunch of volunteers who held firm in the face of the wind and rain with barely even a glimpse of what Alf Wight (AKA James Herriot) proclaimed as "England's Finest View".

Thanks as ever goes to Esk Valley's Clive Thornton who mused "is there anyone left in Thirsk today?" as the hosts stormed in with the female team prize (Esther Harrison, Olivia Mulligan and Laura Heslehurst). York Knavesmire took the male team competition (Ewan Sewell, Phillip Elliot, Thomas Ratcliffe and Oli Read). Fastest veterans were Bronwyn Mayo (F40) of Thirsk & Sowerby in 1:00:05 and Thomas Pilley (M40) of Pickering in 47:11. Other notable finishers included Caroline Glover of Wharfedale with 1st F65 in 1:03:02 and Christine Burn of Thirsk & Sowerby taking 1st F70 in 1:40:42. Michael Hetherington of Pickering and Hugh Jenyns of Thirsk & Sowerby claimed the top two M75 spots in 1:27:39 and 1:34:34 respectively.

A total of £523 surplus funds was raised from the race allowing us to provide a donation to North York Moors National Park (who kindly gave allowed use of their visitor centre facilities) as well as helping with funds to support the vital work of the Yorkshire Air Ambulance. Next event in the Dave Parry Lets Run Winter Series is the third fell race Lockton Limping on Sunday 27th October 2024, entries now open on SI ENTRIES.
