Comments:

It was a day of two halves weather-wise, the chilly morning with blue skies and sunshine gave way to initially a stiffening breeze and grey skies and then a distinctly chilly northerly wind and rain for the last handful of race finishers. The course despite a long hot dry summer delivered a muddy and very slippy in places underfoot terrain, with an aggressive tread the order of the day.

So it was business as usual for Lockton Limping the third counter in as many Sundays of the Dave Parry Lets Run Winter Fell Race Series 2025/26. Nick Cousins was our race organiser with volunteers from Pickering Running Club and further afield too.

Registration was held in Lockton Village Hall, refreshments were available pre and post-race, provided by the hall volunteers, they were welcome too.

Nick opted for entry on the day only this year, with 133 competitors signing up to test themselves against the 11.2km distance and 350m of ascent.

In the fell race itself, the first three runners all bettered the previous male course record, so maybe the course was slightly drier than usual, it was left though to the incumbent record holder to beat his previous mark, and it was a terrific improvement of just over four minutes, well done Rob Sparkes (MSEN) Beverley AC with a time of 45 minutes 7 seconds. Following in Rob, were male seniors, Tom Bell of North Leeds Fell Runners and Sam Leadley of Loftus & Whitby AC. First male veteran home was lan Row an (M45) Esk Valley Fell Club, with Tim Grimwood (M45) Swaledale Runners the other vet to make the top ten.

In the female race it w as York Knavesmire Harriers w ho were to the fore, w ith Ursula Catton (FSEN) claiming the w in over two minutes ahead of team mate and first veteran runner Natalie Greaves (F40), two more F40's Rhona Marshall of Scarborough and Esther Harrison, Thirsk and Sow erby Harriers placed third and fourth w ith Rose Mather (FSEN) in fifth and the third counter in a dominant York Knavesmire w ho eased to a team w in, from Thirsk and Sow erby Harriers and Scarborough AC.

In the men's team competition it was Esk Valley Fell Club who made it three wins on the spin, with lan Rowan supported by Stephen Pugh (M55), Matthew Clark (MU23) and Hamish Miller (MSEN) all in the top 20. Second male team were Pickering RC with York Knavesmire third.

Further down the field we had six counters in the M70 category, with M70 new bie Karl Edwards, Hartlepool Burn Road Harriers first home and in the top half of the field overall. On the day Austen Moore, Mersey Tri was announced as runner-up, apologies as it was Stephen Mummery running as an individual who should have been awarded the prize. Mention it at Saltergate please. In the female categories no M70's this time, it was left to F65 runners Alison Lloyd and Anne Robson to pick up the awards both North York Moors AC.

As has become tradition, Lockton hosted the Summer Series award presentations, a packed hall took advantage of the refreshments and shelter to cheer, bellow and holla in support of team mates, rivals and peers as the Champions, Runners Up, top five, age category winners, endurance and team prizes were awarded, WELL DONE one and all.

Fell runners now have a short window of opportunity to recover and train before the next Dave Parry Lets Run Winter Series fourth counter at Saltergate Gallows on Sunday 16th November at Levisham.
