Comments:

Saltergate Gallows 2025 was the fourth counter in the Dave Parry/Lets Run Winter Fell Race Series 2025/26, athletes had had a few weeks respite following a busy October of fell racing.

The day dawned still and mild, with the beginnings of a nip in the air for what was a shortened version of the Saltergate Gallows race, it was ideal fell racing weather. With heavy storm damage in the forest, the course had been amended to make it much faster and more runnable.

The wet weather in the week preceding had made the course very slippery in places, but it didn't seem to slow many of the runners down. Impressively, the top seven runners all came in under an hour for the 8.6 mile route, and with less than a minute between the top three of Dan Bateson, Sam Leadley and Lewis Suddaby. It was a close race between the top three women too, with only a minute between Natalie Greaves, Jennifer Thompson and Rose Mather. The team competition was hard to call on both counts, with consistency and solid performances winning the day for the Esk Valley Fell Club men (14 Thomas Naisby 16 Stephen Pugh 17 Tom Hustwitt 32 Phil Smith) and the Scarborough AC women (5 Nicola Kidd 13 Katy Dannerolle 17 Marianne Borsheim).

Huge thanks go to Pickering RC and other volunteers for putting on a great race again, and to the people of Levisham for welcoming us with tea, cake and soup. The race raised over £400 for the Yorkshire Air Ambulance and several hundred for the Levisham village hall.

The next event in the fell race series is the Guisborough Woods Fell Race on Saturday 27th November, which is quickly followed by the Captain Cooks Races on New Years Day, shout out for volunteer help for both, please let the organisers know, and then after the briefest of respites, Comondale Clart on Sunday 11th January 2026.
