Comments:

The cancellation of Comondale Clart in January meant that the Cod Beck Canter Fell Race was the seventh counter in the Dave Parry/Lets Run Winter Fell Race Series 2025/26. Athletes theoretically had a few weeks of respite, though it's a busy time of year for racing and runners being runners are unlikely to have taken advantage of the recuperation time.

The weather for the fell race during what had been a decidedly wet and dank period was very kind, cool and dry conditions emerging from the early morning rain and low cloud which moved away, so another ideal fell racing weather day.

Despite the wet weather the tracks were still solid and provided good running conditions, the off track sections were quite boggy after the recent rains, but still better than expected and at least they provide a soft landing for the inevitable trip. The men's race was won by Harry Butterworth, the top 3 runners forming their own little group with Harry competing against George Langford of York Knavesmire Harriers who gained the runners up spot and first veteran Dan Bateson of Scarborough AC, with quite a few changes in position over the race.

With three finishers in the top 10 the Scarborough team looked to be easing to the victory, but with no fourth runner it was left to Esk Valley Fell Club to return to team winning ways with 10 Tom Hustwitt 12 Dermot Meehan 13 Rorie McIntosh and 14 Stephen Pugh, pushing York Knavesmire Harriers into second place.

The women's race was dominated by York Knavesmire Harriers with Becky Penty, Rose Mather and Natalie Greaves the first three home, and claiming the team prize at a canter, with Pickering RC second. Swaledale Runners and Saltwell Harriers turned up en-masse and were rewarded with a few age category winners.

Thanks go to York Acorn RC and other volunteers for putting on a great race again, and to the people of Ingleby Arncliffe for tolerating the parking.

The next event in the fell race series is the At The Double Fell Race on Saturday 14th February.
