Comments:

There was a meteorological anomaly for the Blakey Blitz fell race, a bright sunny day and nearly the absence of any discernible breeze, there was a early spring chill but weather conditions were just about as good as you get in March for a fell race on the North York Moor tops.

The Lion Inn was our registration host, a steady stream of runners arrived as we opened the doors just after 9.00am, as a bonus for Fell Runners Association Members, entry fee was just £5, and £8 still a bargain for non-members. Proceeds from the race and a few generous personal donations will be donated to the local branch of the Marie Curie Cancer Care Charity (at Kirkbymoorside), we estimate about £500.

There were 118 registrations for the race, which started on the dot at 10.30am, despite the reasonable weather, the fell races' AM category meant participants had to carry the mandatory minimum FRA kit list (the absolute requirement applies to AL and BL category fell races too) its then race organisers discretion for the other categories, pleased to say 100% compliance.

In the fell race itself, the 10th counter in the Dave Parry Lets Run Winter Fell Race Series 2025/26, it was veterans to fore with Catherine Williamson FV40 Loftus and Whitby AC leading home from Rhona Marshall FV40 Scarborough AC and the first senior women in third Rose Mather of York Knavesmire Harriers, who along with 6th Bethany Bengel FV45 and 9th Robyn Hawxby FV50 claimed the womens team from Pickering RC and North York Moors AC.

In the mens race it was Dan Bateson MV40 Scarborough AC who led home from Jamie Rutherford MSEN Totley AC and Nicholas Rowley MSEN Esk Valley Fell Club. It was again becoming interesting in the team competition with Esk Valley Fell Club 'A' and Scarborough AC both placing three runners in the first nine, but again Esk Valley won out with 4th Ian Rowan MV45, 9th Rorie McIntosh MV40 and 11th Stephen Pugh MV55, from Esk Valley 'B' and York Knavesmire Harriers in 3rd.

The Lion Inn's landlord provided the mens and womens race winners with meal vouchers and wine to add to the prizes, thank you. Plus a thank you to Race Organiser Robert Lillie and the volunteers who marshalled and administered.

Only three races left in the series, with the next event the rescheduled Comondale Clart Fell Race on Sunday 29th March, registration from 9.00am at the village hall for a race start at 10.30am.
