Comments:

Fine conditions, albeit with a nagging easterly breeze greeted the 95 runners for the final counter in the Dave Parry Lets Run Fell Race Series 2025/26, numbers were down, though a clash with the Yorkshire Three Peaks weekend meant that a third of the usual field were in recovery from the small matter of 24.2 miles, around 5000' of ascent and untypically warm and sunny conditions in the Yorkshire Dales.

The ground conditions were again untypical for Goathland Moor, with the peat baked hard after an extended period of almost wholly dry weather, super-shoes or trail with a very light tread were the order of the day.

It was Paul Lawton MSEN Scarborough AC who returned to winning ways, with Robin Bergstrand M55 now running for North York Moors AC returning for his second race of the winter series after a long period away from off-tarmac racing, claiming second place 40 seconds behind Paul. Third home was Peter Walker M40 of York Knavesmire Harriers.

In the women's category it was senior runners in the top four places, with Kelly Richmond Pickering RC easing to victory from Kirsty Struthers North York Moors AC and third Cassie Read York Knavesmire Harriers.

In the women's team competition Scarborough AC led home with 4th Anna V Giddings, 8th Marianne Borsheim and 10th Liv Bourne, meanwhile in the men's competition it was York Knavesmire with Peter Walker in 3rd supported by Rich Northgate in 5th, Richard Purser 10th and Luke Osborne 14th ahead of North York Moors AC.

A big thank you to the Race Organisers Dave Parke and Robert Lillie and the many helpers.

This concludes the 2025/26 edition of the Winter Fell Race Series. Though only a short period of rest for runners with the opening event in Summer Series 2026, just days away the opener is Fox and Hounds Chase on Sunday 3rd May at the Yorkshire Cycle Hub in Fryupdale, registration from 9.00am start time 10.30am.
