Comments:

The heatwave subsided nicely for the Glaisdale May Fell Race, the third counter in the Dave Parry Lets Run Summer Series 2026, the sun shone, but with the North Easterley breeze bringing with it a distinct cooling effect just the job for runners. The event Race Organiser for this one is Adrian Martin of Silverback Trails, to manage parking entries are restricted to 100, Adrian was rewarded with a start field of 97 runners.

A water main burst earlier in the day on the climb through the village meant a short diversion for runners and a slightly longer race distance for participants.

In the tale of the tape it was wins for Catherine Williamson (F40) and Oliver Shaw (MSEN) both of Loftus and Whitby AC, with runners-up team mate Sam Leadley (MSEN) and Esther Harrison (F40) Thirsk and Sowerby Harriers.
