Comments:

Seasonally correct weather finally arrived for the fifth counter in the Dave Parry Lets Run Summer Fell Race Series 2026, after previous rounds were greeted with overcast and wet conditions. The mainstream media outlets went big on the forecast conditions, though the Bransdale valley was very warm and as temperatures eased the conditions were very pleasant.

79 participants registered for the fell race, which all agreed was a cracking route in beautiful scenery in a less often visited dale of the North York Moors.

Thanks to our race organiser David Sanderson Esk Valley Fell Club, supported by spouse Trudy and the volunteers. Surplus proceeds from entry fees and the donations towards the barbecue will be donated to the Cleveland Mountain Rescue Team.

The winners on the night were Oliver Shaw & Catherine Williamson (both of Loftus & Whitby). Rounding out the podium was George Langford (York Knavesmire) & Mikey Garbutt (also Loftus & Whitby) and for the females: Shelli Gordon (Boro Runners) and Kath Aspin (EVFC). Oliver & Mikey were joined by team mates Thomas Wilson and Robert Williamson for the male team victory. The female team victory was taken by Pickering Running Club (Lucy Saggars, Jo Towler & Lynn Humpleby). Congrats to all of the runners.

Couple of reminders, please print off your own copy of the route map, they are available on the Esk Valley Fell Club website, we may have a limited number at registration, but availability cannot be guaranteed. And keep your race number its valid for the whole series, so through to and including the Fry-up Frazzler in September 2026.

Fell racers have a few weeks respite, the next event is Cock Howe and Beyond on Wednesday 15th July quickly followed by the Ravenscar Rumble Revisited the following week on Wednesday 22nd July.
