Comments:

There was little time to rest for fell racers with Tripsdale Trot following hot on the heels of Roseberry Topping earlier in the week. The weather forecast gradually improved as race day approached, so on the day the scheduled rain did not materialise as anything of substance.

The fell race is held in conjunction with the Bilsdale Show, a rural fixture on the last Saturday of August. Three races were held on the day, the Tripsdale Trot at 8.90km and a not insignificant 438m of climbing, just about an A rated course, the Hill End Haste at 2.50km/128m, available to under 12 and over plus adult fun runners, and then an out and back at 1.20km/30m for our youngest competitors in under 10 category minimum age 6 years.

All three races started with a lap of the show ring to the accompaniment of the Bilsdale Silver Band. It was the seniors off first with a field of 60 runners who headed to Bilsdale Moor, next up the 18 participants in the two junior races headed off a few minutes later.

As the seniors took in the sights of Bilsdale Moor, it was Josh Loveridge and Reuben Fellows who crossed the line together as joint winners of the Out and Back Under 10s fell race. Esmay Duddin in fifth led home from Iris Prichard in the girls race.

A little later but in advance of the seniors Charlie Reynolds U14 Esk Valley Fell Club led home followed closely two seconds later by Eliza Fellows U16 Individual in the Hill End Haste.

As the junior and fun runners finished their runs, it was Andrew Armin MSEN Saltwell Harriers who led home in the Tripsdale Trot and claimed the Trennet Trophy awarded by the Bilsdale Agricultural Society. Joseph Martlew MSEN Thirsk and Sowerby Harriers followed with Ian Rowan M45 Esk Valley Fell Club third.

In the team competition it was Esk Valley Fell Club men with Ian supported by Dermot Meehan, Phil Smith and Stephen Pugh.

Kirsty Struthers FSEN North York Moors claimed first place in the women's race, no trophy this year but an offer for 2027. Harriot Beecroft FSEN raced to second with Poppy Freeman FSEN Edinburgh Triathletes completing the podium.

And in a close team competition North York Moors with Kirsty Stroll and Anna Proll won over Pickering RC and Loftus and Whitby AC by virtue of a ghost runner.

Thanks to RO David Sanderson, Bilsdale Show Committee and our volunteers from the running community and beyond.

The fell series returns on Saturday 12 September with the Castleton Show hilly road race, the twelfth and penultimate event. Advance entries available via the NYMAC website and on race day.
